

Brian Bergson Joins Goff & Howard

11-19-08

Goff & Howard is excited to welcome our newest employee, Brian Bergson, who will join our public affairs and media relations practices. Brian most recently served as the director of communications and legislative affairs for the Minnesota Attorney General's office and served during 1993-1994 in the Minnesota House of Representatives.

Brian's years of public affairs and public relations experience has included handling tough challenges, as demonstrated during his eight years of work directing legislative affairs for the Minnesota Association of Professional Employees (MAPE). During his tenure, he worked with elected leaders to address the challenges of a statewide strike and a government shutdown, among others. Brian also spent 21 years in the Minnesota National Guard and Army Reserve, retiring with the rank of captain in 2003.

For Brian, politics and government runs in the family. At an early age, he recalls attending political events and helping his parents pass out campaign materials. "My parents dragged me to caucuses and conventions, which drove me crazy as a kid," said Brian. "But I guess it rubbed off on me, because politics and government have been the main part of my career."

We look forward to Brian joining our team on December 1. To learn more about Goff & Howard's newest team member, visit www.goffhoward.com.
